Wicks Postpones Budget Action to Allow More Study

Decision Comes at Albany as Some Legislators Oppose Increase in Taxes

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Republican tax revoltors won today the first round in their fight to slash Governor Dewey's proposed $168,290,000 tax increases. They forced postponement for a week action by the Senate Finance Committee on Dewey's record-high $936,200,000 budget.

The delay came as Senator Walter J. Mahoney of Buffalo, spokesman for the Erie county Republican bloc which with Westchester county Republicans are fighting tax increase, said the Erie delegation would "offer certain amendments to the budget to reduce some expenditures."

Senate Finance Committee Chairman Arthur H. Wicks, of Kingston, acknowledged he had bowed to the wishes of objectors to the budget in postponing committee action.

Wicks said the postponement was granted to allow opponents of the budget time to study it further.

He refused to name the committee members who asked for delay.

Administration leaders yesterday had decided to press for an early vote on Dewey's budget and tax program.

Balance Is Seen Expects No Collapse

Detroit, Feb. 22 (AP)—There'll be "stable and healthy" relations between earnings and prices in 1949, says a government expert.

A "readjustment" need not be "violent or extreme," according to Commissioner Ewan Clague of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

"It does not now look as if this is the beginning of a price collapse like that of 1920," Clague said in a talk here yesterday.

Clague told Detroit's Economic Club there are more points of "difference" than of "similarity" between 1949 and 1920, citing what he called "vastly greater" consumer purchasing power in 1949.

Car, Minus Driver, Hits Station Pump

Woodstock Crash Occurs as Woman Parks to Eat in Diner

A runaway automobile glanced off another car and smashed into a gasoline pump at Pini's Service Station in Woodstock about 7 p. m. Monday, Deputy Sheriff William Frost reported.

The gasoline pump was severed from its base and, according to one observer, there was a flash as the gas in the pump ignited.

Vasco L. Pini, operator of the gas station, summoned the Woodstock Fire Company, but the flash did not ignite the gasoline in the tank and no fire or explosion occurred, Frost said.

The automobile, which had been driven by Leonard Herzog of New York, was parked at the curb in front of Deane's on Route 212 in Woodstock while the driver was inside eating, according to the deputy sheriff's report.

Miss Herzog told Frost that the brakes had been set.

The automobile apparently began rolling down the hill, headed east, and proceeded slowly in the center of the highway until, gaining momentum, it crossed over to the north side of the highway and ran off into the gas station yard, according to an investigation by Deputy Sheriff Frost.

A car owned by Visco Pini, which was parked in the yard, was struck and its right front fender damaged, Frost said. Then the other automobile continued and hit the pump head-on, he reported.

Excelsior Revives Old-Time Parades For 'New' Pumper

'Higginsville' Once More Comes Into Its Own With Red Flares, Big Party

The fire department's reconditioned 1000-gallon pumper was turned over to the volunteer Excelsior Hose Company Monday evening amid festivities which according to William B. Martin, Excelsior president, were reminiscent of old-time firemen's parades.

The old Excelsior truck was escorted from its fire house on Hurley avenue through crowds of people lining the streets of the Higginsville section of the city, through the uptown section and down Broadway to the Central Fire Station, where it was officially returned to the city by President Martin.

The reconditioned pumper, which formerly had seen service with the paid department at the Willwyck station, was then escorted back to the Excelsior house and presented to that company by Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk.

Bucar Book Claims Top Black Deals

Soviets Publish Volume Saying Ambassador Was Operator; Some Get Art Prizes

Calls It 'Truth'

Author Quit Her Work Year Ago as U. S. Aid on Information

Moscow, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Russians have published a book under the name of Annabelle Bucar, resigned U. S. embassy employee. It makes statements like these:

That U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith operated in the black market and ordered Russian employees in the embassy to sell for him such things as gold coins, watches and fountain pens;

That large speculators at the embassy go back to the United States with "tens of thousands of dollars worth" of art, illegally exported;

That a U. S. State Department clique is trying to foment war with Russia;

That some State Department employees are "Germanophiles."

Miss Bucar is a former Pittsburgh University coed from Clairton, Pa., who quit a year ago as administrative assistant in the U. S. Information Service. In her letter of resignation she had complained embassy policy was directed against the Russians. At the same time she revealed she had been married for 13 months to Konstantin Lapshin, a Russian singer. She lives in Moscow now and is the mother of a son.

The 132-page book, published by the "Literary Gazette," is called "The Truth About American Diplomats." It is dedicated "to the bright memory of my mother."

"In dirty speculative affairs even Ambassador Smith is by no means sinless," says Chapter Six. "He committed acts unbecoming and not corresponding with the position of ambassador to Moscow."

The book says an embassy worker, Mikhail Zagorodny, told her "that more than once, at Smith's orders, he speculated in gold coins—American ten dollar pieces and Cuban ten peso pieces—and watches."

Zagorodny bragged that in a recent period he realized for Smith 25,000 rubles in the sale of gold coins and watches. (The diplomatic rate of exchange is now eight rubles to the dollar. Before the revaluation of the currency in December, 1947, it was 12 to the dollar.)

The book says another embassy employee named Bender related to her experiences in trying to sell furs, fountain pens and cigarettes for Smith. Bender told Miss Bucar he failed to dispose of the goods and that "the boss was putting pressure on him and demanding money," the book relates.

It states that at the end of 1947 Councillor Elbridge Durbrow, a native of San Francisco, was chief of an embassy board which made an investigation of black market operations in the city.

"Many workers at the embassy know for a fact that he was one of the most active speculators at the embassy," the book asserts.

Has Executive Job

Durbrow now has an executive position at the Army War College in Washington.

"For example," the book continues, "certain embassy workers knew when Durbrow came to the Soviet Union he entered."

N.L.R.B. Says Law Brought Friction

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board chairman said today the Taft-Hartley law has brought "friction" between the board and its general counsel.

Paul M. Herzog, N.L.R.B. chairman, cited examples of "friction," delay, uncertainty and unnecessary litigation in a letter to Senator Morse (R-Ore.).

Morse put the letter into the Senate Labor Committee record. The committee is holding hearings on the administration's bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley law and restore the old Wagner Labor Relations Act with some changes.

Sino Chief Cites Reds

Canton, Feb. 22 (AP)—Acting President Li Tsung-jen today warned the Communists must not cross the Yangtze river if they want peace. Lie then took off for Kweilin.

The acting president said a Red attack on Nanking and Shanghai south of the river would end efforts for peace negotiations.

Li's departure was much more cordial than his resignation. He came here to try to persuade Premier Sun Fo and the cabinet to return to Nanking. At first Sun appeared cold toward Li. But he and the cabinet saw the acting president off at the airport.

In Hong Kong Professor Wu Yu-ho, spokesman for an unofficial Nanking peace delegation, said he and two companions hoped to accompany Sun Fo back to Nanking within three days. The three were in Hong Kong to try to lay before south China Communist leaders Sun's ideas for peace. Any "exchange of ideas" resulting from the Hong Kong visit will be reported to Li and Sun Fo, Wu said.

The acting president's warning that a Communist river crossing would prevent any peace negotiations was made at a reception. Later Li presided over a cabinet meeting at which he expressed confidence the government could stabilize the national economy.

"All we must do is strive for better governmental administration," Li said. He added that the entire gold yuan issue now in circulation could be redeemed with $2,000,000 U. S.

Right-wing Kuomintang boss Chen Li-fu, who came here reportedly to bolster Sun Fo's Canton bloc, said he would depart for his home at Wuhsiang, near where retired President Chiang Kai-shek is resting. It was presumed he would report to Chiang on the results of his visit in Canton.

One problem not settled satisfactorily to the Canton bloc of the Nationalist government is the question of holding the next meeting of the legislative Yuan in Nanking. Legislators here went the meeting held in Canton.

I will fly from Kweilin to Changsha, home of his former rival for the vice presidency, Gen. Chiang Kai-shek.

Bierwisch Concludes Line of Opposition; Central Testimony Is Heard

Paul Bierwisch, former Albany State Teachers College student and Red Hook school teacher, testified Monday afternoon before the Public Service Commission hearing that withdrawal of train No. 2 on the West Shore Railroad would be a hardship on students attending Albany schools. He said when he was student he had used the train and he now contemplated a summer course at Albany and would again use the train.

Bierwisch was the last witness called by the opposition and following his testimony witnesses for the New York Central were called.

At the close of the day the hearing was adjourned until Wednesday, March 2, at 10:30 o'clock at the court house here.

Bierwisch said the service on the West Shore was "pretty poor" and when he used the trains they were frequently late. Usually they started out about on time from Albany but arrived in Kingston late. He urged that the present service be continued.

Testimony on behalf of those opposing curtailment of train service was then concluded with the offering of various railroad timetables, and copies of circulars published by resort areas in Ulster county in which the West Shore Railroad is mentioned as a means of getting to and from the vacation areas.

William Stevens, counsel for the railroad, then offered on behalf of the railroad a report of the Motor Vehicle Commission containing registration figures for motor vehicles. He called attention in particular to the fact that the number of cars registered in the county had increased.

Commission Asks Farm Unit Change

Reorganization Would Aid Farmers, Save Money, Report Says

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Hoover Commission said today reorganization of the Agriculture Department could save the taxpayers at least $80,000,000 a year. Also, it said, the changes would save farmers a lot of confusion.

In a report to Congress, the commission recommended a broad reorganization of the department, both in Washington and in the field—and transfer to it some food and land activities now carried on by other governmental agencies.

From the farmer's standpoint, perhaps the most important recommendation is one which would unify the department's far-flung activities in each agricultural county to end what the commission called "duplications, overlapping, and often conflicting policies."

The commission, a bipartisan group on government reorganization headed by former President Hoover, commended the department as a "vital and effective" agency in carrying out programs of value to farmers and consumers.

But its rapid growth has resulted, the report said, in what amounts to a "loose confederation of independent bureaus and agencies."

HomeRelief Gets Close Inspection

Highest Democrats Take No Stand on Measure; Would Boost Taxes on Pay Rolls

Denies Aid for All

President Says He Had Not Heard of Relief for All Poor

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Lawmakers gave this answer today to President Truman's request for a vast expansion of the social security system: Some of it may pass—but not the whole thing.

The bill Mr. Truman sent to Capitol Hill yesterday proposed (a) providing direct "home relief" to all needy persons; (b) blanketing 20,000,000 more persons under old age insurance; (c) greatly increasing the benefits; (d) raising—in some cases, tripling—the tax on paychecks and pay rolls.

It was the "home relief" idea which came under the closest scrutiny in Congress.

Top Democratic managers of security legislation—Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the House Ways and Means Committee and Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee—took no position on the bill.

The program calls for an increase in payroll taxes for old age and survivors insurance, to about $6,000,000,000.

It would boost individual payroll taxes 100 per cent or more. The tax on a person making $4,800 or more could be increased from a top of $90 to $96 a year.

The program would cover a total of 50,000,000 persons.

Members of Congress said they had no idea how far the unprecedented "home relief" program could go or what the overall cost would be.

Under this phase, the maximum payment in which the federal government would participate would be $50 a month for one person; $50 for two, first additional person in a home, and $20 for each additional person. States would contribute 40 to 75 per cent of the cost, according to state wealth.

Such assistance from the federal treasury's general fund, outside the insurance program, now is limited to needy aged persons, the blind and dependent children. It now costs about $1,000,000,000 a year.

Mr. Truman, in response to a question at his news conference last Thursday, said he never had heard of a proposal to give "home relief" to all poor people.

The new bill proposes one other thing.

To Get Barracks

St. Lawrence U. Awarded Abandoned Army Post Buildings

Canton, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—St. Lawrence University says it has been awarded the abandoned army post at Madison Barracks, near Sackett Harbor, free of charge by the War Assets Administration.

The university announced last night that it had been notified of the grant in a telegram from Representative Clarence E. Kilburn (R-N.Y.). There are 130 permanent buildings on the property, the university said.

At the same time, the W.A.A.'s New York regional office announced that the barracks water system had been awarded to the village of Sackett Harbor for $55,500, on a 40 per cent discount basis.

In the absence of Dr. Eugene G. Dewkes, St. Lawrence president, the university did not reveal its plans for utilization of the property.

When the university submitted a bid for the barracks last December, however, it said it planned to use the site for expansion purposes.

These Are Americans

Zurich, Switzerland, Feb. 22 (AP)—A Swiss travel expert, who as far as is known does not wear rose-tinted glasses, has the following to report about American tourists: "Americans are very gracious to all foreigners and are impressively patient and disciplined in crowds." This is because Americans have discovered it causes less wear and tear on the nerves to be polite. When there is an automobile collision, the two drivers get out. "Laughingly exchange visiting cards and leave the rest to the insurance companies." The report comes from the travel "expert" of the Zurich newspaper Die Tat.

which often "overlap and duplicate." Two members of the 12-man commission dissented from the estimate that the suggested reorganization would save $80,000,000 a year. The dissenters, Dean Acheson, who now is Secretary of State, and James H. Howe, Jr., explained they did not believe that the estimated savings had been "subjected to enough scrutiny."

Suggests Eight Units

At the Washington, D.C., the commission recommended the department be reorganized so as to divide its activities among eight different units or services, as follows: Research, Extension, Agricultural Resources, Conservation, Commodity Readjustment, Regulatory, Agricultural Credit, Rural Electrification and a Secretary's Staff Service which would deal with such matters as finances, personnel, legal questions, information, supplies, research management and library.

The commission recommended that local farmer committees first set up under the A.A. crop control program be divorced from administrative functions. These committees now help carry out department programs covering price supports, school lunches soil conservation, acreage allotment, forestry and purchases.

This administrative work the commission said, should be done by department employees through offices based on the states as units, insofar as is possible they would be housed jointly at the county level.

"The services at county levels and to farmer units should be so merged as to reduce the number of duplicating and unnecessary employees, with due regard to avoiding divided authority," he report said.

Urges Local Councils

The commission urged, however, the establishment of county and state councils of farmers. These councils would be elected by farmers. They would serve in an advisory capacity only. Unlike present farmer committees, they would not draw salaries or per diem payments. They would be paid out-of-pocket costs in connection with their periodical meetings.

through Warsaw and there acquired the black market a whole trunkful of Soviet money at rates of up to one-tenth their legal value. "Thanks to the immunity of diplomatic baggage he brought this money into Moscow and used it for his own purposes—probably selling and transferring it into dollars by various means open to a person closely connected with embassy bookkeeping."

The book claimed that "large speculators" at the embassy got back to the United States with "tens of thousands of dollars often in the form of valuable art productions illegally exported."

Referring to Durbrow, the book said an American girl who lived with Miss Bucar a long time in Moscow "not only knew about this matter but even informed the State Department of it. Durbrow therefore feared her and soon got her transferred out of Moscow."

Miss Bucar's roommate for many months was Celia Was, a State Department worker who was transferred from Moscow shortly after the author resigned from the embassy.

livian Col. Edmundo Nogales, whom he described as the prime mover of the "thwarted revolution," planned to leave Lima, Peru for La Paz this coming Thursday with the official sanction of the Peruvian government.

(The army seized control of Peru October 31, 1948 and has since ruled by decree.) An Interior Ministry communiqué said that the plotters planned to seize electric and water works and dynamite essential government installations.

It said the country is now quiet with the administration in control.

Will Fight Move

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—A group of senators prepared today to fight any move which might water down the terms of the proposed Atlantic defense treaty in Senate debate. Five members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said privately they are ready to demand individually the strongest sort of pledge possible—that that country will back its friends in Europe if they are threatened by Communist aggression. It is their view that the tentative treaty language on this point, as shown the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week by Secretary of State Acheson, is satisfactory—if it is not weakened in Senate debate.

The police department arson squad theorized that she was burned when she tried to save valuables from the library where the fire started. She was found unconscious on her bed by the Dorsey butler, Ben Murphy, 66, an old time actor. Murphy, awakened by the barking of the Dorsey dogs, carried her through the flaming living room to safety.

The arson squad said preliminary investigation showed that apparently a defective furnace vent caused the fire.

Says Recruit Fares Better

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The army treats its recruits better than it does its generals. That, at least, is the conclusion of Lawrence H. Whiting, member of a civilian commission appointed to study military pay and pensions. He told a House Armed Services subcommittee today that the recruit is paid more than he could get in civilian life, but the general gets much less. Whiting, a Chicago business man, testified in support of a bill to raise pay an average of 14 per cent for the army, air force, navy, marines, coast guard, public health service and coast and geodetic survey.

Committee reported out for consideration the three administration tax bills which had been referred to it. These provide a one-cent a gallon boost in the gasoline tax, an increase of 66 2/3 per cent in the income tax and a one per cent hike in the corporate franchise tax.

The fourth tax bill, providing an increase in the harness racing pari-mutuel levy, remained in the hands of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. The committee was scheduled to act the measure and the appropriations bills late today.

Dorsey Home Is Razed, Wife Seriously Burned

Burbank, Calif., Feb. 22 (UP)—Mrs. Jimmy Dorsey, wife of the orchestra leader, remained in serious condition today from burns suffered when fire destroyed most of the couple's $125,000 home, a Toluca Lake showplace.

Attendants at St. Joseph's Hospital here added, however, that the one-time beauty contest winner and dancer passed a "fair" night and rested well. She is 39.

She was burned severely on the arms and face early yesterday when a spectacular fire razed the 15-room mansion. The flames, shooting 50 feet into the sky, were visible for miles.

The police department arson squad theorized that she was burned when she tried to save valuables from the library where the fire started. She was found unconscious on her bed by the Dorsey butler, Ben Murphy, 66, an old time actor. Murphy, awakened by the barking of the Dorsey dogs, carried her through the flaming living room to safety.

The arson squad said preliminary investigation showed that apparently a defective furnace vent caused the fire.

Says Recruit Fares Better

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The army treats its recruits better than it does its generals. That, at least, is the conclusion of Lawrence H. Whiting, member of a civilian commission appointed to study military pay and pensions. He told a House Armed Services subcommittee today that the recruit is paid more than he could get in civilian life, but the general gets much less. Whiting, a Chicago business man, testified in support of a bill to raise pay an average of 14 per cent for the army, air force, navy, marines, coast guard, public health service and coast and geodetic survey.

Sino Chief . . .

Chen Chien, Chen, reports in Nanking said, will be asked to go to Nanking for a conference with high Chinese Nationalists, including Gen. Chang Chih-chung, northwestern commander, who arrived there today.

The Communists have been sitting north of the Yangtze for seven weeks and have given no indication they intend to cross the river right away. Red Gen. Chen Yi reportedly told a Li emissary, guerrilla leader Li Ming-yang, the Communists would not cross as long as there was a chance for peace.

Nanking sources viewed Li's trip to Canton as a move to build up his strength for a showdown with the Canton faction of the government, or the Communists—or both.

Harold Mills, Nanking correspondent of the Associated Press, said it has been learned from sources close to Li that the acting president was putting everything he has in his campaign. If successful it would give him sufficient backing to talk peace terms to the Reds and to force those National leaders still loyal to Chiang Kai-shek to accept the terms.

Bills Proposed in Legislature

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The sponsor of a point system of veterans' civil service preference predicts the Senate Judiciary Committee will approve his proposal today.

Senator MacNeil Mitchell, Manhattan Republican, said last night he expected the committee to report out for debate and vote a proposed constitutional amendment to revise the present absolute ratings given ex-servicemen.

Meanwhile, Senator William F. Condon, Yonkers Republican, introduced a resolution to create a special legislative committee to consider all legislation dealing with preference and report recommendations by Feb. 15, 1950.

Condon is the sponsor of a rival amendment which would continue the present absolute preference given disabled veterans, but which is scheduled to expire next year.

Condon's move came in the face of growing legislative support for the Mitchell proposal. Governor Dewey and Democratic legislative leaders have announced their support of the measure.

The Mitchell proposal would give disabled veterans 10 points on examinations for original appointments or five points for promotions. It also would grant non-disabled veterans five points or two and one-half points. The credit would be limited to one appointment or advancement.

Both measures were passed by the 1948 legislature. They must be approved again by the legislature and submitted to a vote of the people before becoming law.

Governor Dewey, meanwhile, signed into law a measure to increase the salary of the Dutchess county surrogate from $7,500 to $10,000 annually.

The Senate passed and sent to the Assembly a bill extending to 48 hours the period for filing reports with the State Motor Vehicle Bureau of automobile accidents in which a person is killed or injured, or in which property damage exceeds $50. Such reports now must be made immediately. It was sponsored by G.O.P. Senator Seymour Halpern of Manhattan.

Dewey Signs Court Act

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Court of Claims Judge Fred A. Young of Lowville today was certain of a full nine-year term in the $15,000-a-year post. Governor Dewey last night signed into law a bill extending the term from December 31, 1953 to December 31, 1957. An additional seat on the state court, bringing the number of judges to six, was created in 1946, but Dewey did not fill it until last December 8. Young resigned from the State Senate to accept the appointment. The measure to extend Young's term to the regular nine-year period was sponsored by Senator Philip W. Williamson, Scarsdale Republican.

Bulletins on the proposed social security expansion will be read. Supper will follow the meeting and all members are asked to attend.

Founder of A. & P. Food Store Honored

Increased population and improved American diets make the continued search for still greater efficiencies in food distribution more important now than ever before, L. M. Cazayoux, president of the New England Division of A. & P. Food Stores, said today.

Speaking in observance of the company's 90th anniversary, which is being observed this month, Mr. Cazayoux cited recent estimates indicating the nation has 148,000,000 people to feed now, as compared to 130,000,000 in 1940. He also pointed out that the average American is eating about 35 per cent more food than in the pre-war years.

"It is important now, more than ever before," Mr. Cazayoux stated, "that every American family be provided with sufficient food at the lowest possible cost. American food retailers have accomplished a great deal among this line in the past, but new methods and still greater economies should still be sought in the future."

In commemoration of the company's anniversary, Mr. Cazayoux said the entire history of A. & P. was a record of following the simple philosophy of its founder, George Huntington Hartford, who opened the first red-fronted store on Vesey street, in lower Manhattan, back in 1859.

"Mr. Hartford believed that by shortening the route between producers, more people could be provided with more food at less cost.

More Police Await
Turn to Question
Suspected Robber

White Plains, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—More police of cities from coast to coast, seeking to solve scores of thefts, lined up today waiting their turns to question Gerard G. Dennis, suave and handsome 28-year-old Canadian.

Among the first listed to get at the prisoner today were officers from Greenwich, Conn., and Suffolk and Nassau counties, N. Y.

Police of Los Angeles and New York city questioned Dennis yesterday, while officers from other cities waited.

Dennis, who was brought here last Friday from Cleveland where he was arrested, is accused by authorities of cross-country thefts of $600,000 worth of jewels and furs. Police say he has admitted thefts totaling $140,000 from wealthy Westchester county homes in this vicinity.

Capt. Emmett Jones of the Los Angeles police questioned Dennis yesterday, and declined comment later. New York city police indicated they got no evidence that the prisoner was implicated in any of a recent series of burglaries of East Side Manhattan homes.

In Cleveland—where a two-year hunt for Dennis ended—Detective Lieutenant Lawrence G. Denk of Cleveland Heights revealed last night that Zoltan Greenhunt, 32, a jeweler, provided the tip that led to Dennis' arrest.

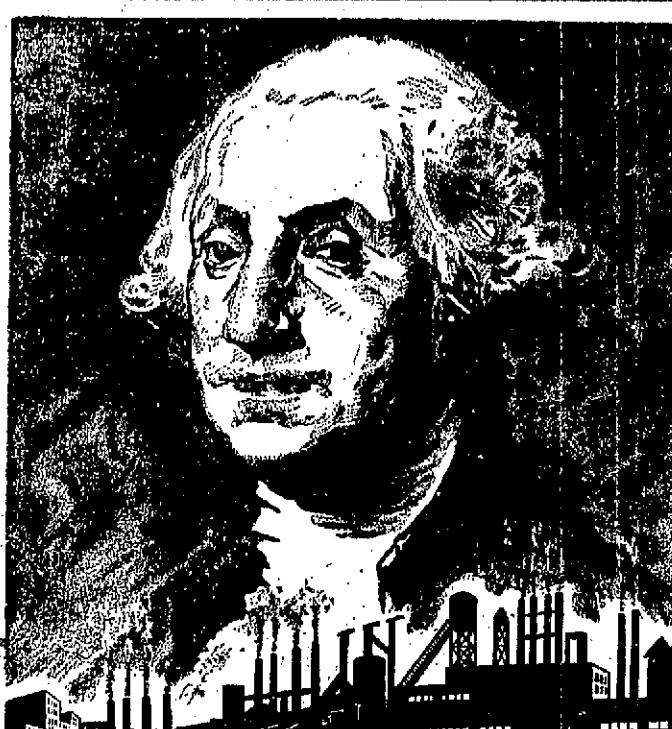

Done as Protection
Previously, Denk had said an unnamed Canadian fisherman provided the tip. This was done, Denk explained, to protect Greenhunt from possible vengeance. Denk said last night that Greenhunt saw Dennis in some home movies of a society wedding last November, and later recognized Dennis' picture on a police circular.

Police of Beverly Hills, Calif., have said they found a trunk containing $100,000 worth of jewels, gold, silver and platinum in an apartment there which Dennis listed as his address. He carried $18,000 worth of unset diamonds and $1,400 in cash when arrested, police said.

Police in Beverly Hills said $7,500 worth of loot stolen from actress Loretta Young was identified yesterday among articles found in Dennis' apartment. The actress' personal maid identified a $5,500 mink coat, a $1,000 fur wrap and $1,000 worth of jewelry as articles stolen from Miss Young's home last August 28, police said.

Miss Betty Ritchie, 24, who was arrested in Dennis' apartment, remained in custody in Beverly Hills. The former Toronto, Ont., school teacher, was arraigned yesterday on a charge of receiving stolen property and was unable to raise bail set at $2,500. Her preliminary hearing was set for Friday.

McKENNEY
ON BRIDGEAuction-Type Play
Aids This Contract

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

In attempting to aid the peoples of the world, we sometimes overlook the problems of some of our own people. The problem that confronts War Orphans Scholarships, Inc., is to aid in the education of the children of those who were killed in action in the war.

The fathers of these children gave up their lives. Their mothers in many cases have remarried, or even died, and the children need help to obtain the education to which they are entitled. I am pleased to say that the activities of this organization will expand from now on.

The U. S. Marine Corps has always been interested in this educational problem. Major General Oliver P. Smith, assistant commandant of the Marine Corps, who is a member of the board of directors of War Orphans Scholarships, Inc., assured the board that we would continue to receive for the war orphans the royalties from books that have been written by Marines.

General Smith is an auction bridge player who has never taken up contract. A real auction bridge player, however, can show you how to play the cards.

The correct line of play is to win the opening lead of the deuce of hearts in the South hand with the ace, then lead a small heart to dummy's queen. Next the ace and jack of spades are played, declarer overtaking the jack with the queen. Now cash the king of spades, which picks up East's last trump.

When West discards the three of clubs, declarer can count on East for the king. Realizing that his only chance to make the contract is to find West with the jack of clubs, South leads a club and finesses dummy's eight-spot.

East wins with the ten and returns a diamond, which is won in dummy with the ace. At this point the old auction player cashes the ace of clubs, which drops West's pack and provides declarer with a good discard.

If West does not discard the small club, declarer still can make the contract. After taking the club finesse, he cashes the ace of clubs and leads the queen. East may refuse to cover, in which case South takes a discard. If East does cover, the nine of clubs is established in dummy.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Feb. 19—Dennis' Tilden Lynch, widely-known political writer, historian and biographer, will formally join the New York city fire department on February 28 as its secretary on the appointment of Mayor O'Dwyer, according to last Tuesday's Herald Tribune, on which paper he has been a writer for the past 39 years. Mr. Lynch, who has maintained a summer home in Shokan since the early 1920's, has written several books, including the following semi-biographical works: "Grover Cleveland," "Boss Tweed," and "Martin Van Buren" and he is also the author of "Criminal and Politicians." He is now at work on a life of the late Mayor F. H. La Guardia. In addition to his contributions to various magazines he has written, political definitions for a dictionary of American history, as well as a section entitled "Political Parties, 1770-1850," to a ten-volume "History of New York State," published by the state historical association of which he is a trustee. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch have two sons, Dunstan and Donald, and a daughter, Denise Petersen. The family property here is the one time Henry Bogart place near "Tic Ten Eyck" mountain.

Around Town: A free lending library has been established in the Shokan post office building. Harbinger of Spring: Bud Jackson and Will Oakley playing pitch and catch on the state road; John Saxe's fine herd of Guernsey milk cattle exercising in the barn lot along the trail; Louie Taiol's big flock of white Pekin ducks and George Thost's Toulouse geese waddling around on the still green grass.

Edward Lamme, Jr., former local K.H.S. student, is now in Floral Park, L. I., where he is employed at a relative's gas station. Eddie married a Tucson, Ariz., girl since leaving Shokan two years ago.

The big elm tree which stood at the narrow and dangerous point on Route 28 near Fleischmanns has been removed. The tree had been struck many times by cars. This was near where the bad bus accident of a year ago took place. Incidentally, in connection with the same narrow, winding road west of Fleischmanns, it is reported that a hearing was scheduled to take place in Albany last Tuesday in the matter of rebuilding these nine miles of Route 28 between Margaretville and the Ulster county line.

Bedenkapp, Mylott
Are Appointed to Commission Posts

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Former Republican State Chairman Glen R. Bedenkapp and Francis T. Mylott, a Democrat, have been appointed to $16,500-a-year posts as members of the State Public Service Commission.

Governor Dewey last night sent the nominations to the Senate for confirmation.

Bedenkapp, a resident of Lewiston, Niagara county, was nominated to succeed Neal Brewster of Syracuse, a Democrat whose term expired Feb. 1, 1947. Bedenkapp's term runs until Feb. 1, 1957.

He resigned Friday as chairman of the Republican State Committee after four years in the post.

Mylott, from Jackson Heights, was named to fill the unexpired term of former Commission Chairman Milo R. Maltbie, New York city Democrat, who retired Jan. 22. Mylott's term ends Feb. 1, 1951.

Mylott had served as consulting accountant to the Public Service Commission since 1934 and in that capacity had charge of all accounting work in the New York metropolitan district.

Dewey still must appoint a successor to Commissioner Maurice C. Burritt of Hilton, a Republican whose 10-year term expired Feb. 1.

Burritt has remained on the five-member board as acting chairman pending appointment of a new chairman.

Senate Republican Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg of Flushing has been mentioned most frequently as a possible choice for the chairmanship which pays $17,500 annually.

Feinberg's appointment, however, would not be made until after the current session of the Legislature.

The other two P.S.C. members are Spencer B. Eddy of Saratoga Springs and George A. Arkwright of Brooklyn, both Republicans.

Crusader's Story Told

At W.C.T.U. Meeting
"Restless under social wrongs, the true crusader must act once under the compulsion of today's need. No tomorrow nor next month nor 'sometime,' but now," said Mrs. Andrew J. Keefe, reviewing the life and work of Frances E. Willard at the recent meeting of Kingston W.C.T.U. at her home.

Frances Willard often said that the W.C.T.U. recognized no sectarianism in religion, no sectionalism in politics, no sex in citizenship. Mrs. Keefe reported, Frances Willard sought out leaders of the labor movement, of Catholicism, of education, and found and used a common ground on which to build the temperance reform. She did not wait for others to come to her. She knew with Wendell Phillips the history of the crusaders. "When all alone he sees the need for a change he is a fanatic; when a good many see it with him they are enthusiasts; when all see it, he is a hero."

"Today's crusader knows; as the praying women of 75 years ago knew, that the time for action is now," Mrs. Keefe concluded.

Mrs. Marie Gunther called attention to the January 12 report on the U. S. subsidy to potato growers. Particularly concerning Steuben county the information said that never have so many potatoes been on hand as now in Steuben county. Two years ago the producers tried piling them up and letting them rot, but that failed terribly wasteful and it wasn't good advertising for the way the government does business.

Now Steuben county's potatoes are going to alcohol plants for whiskey, gin, rum liquors and neutral spirits; also cattle feed, potato flour and other items, she noted. Hundreds of cars of the noted potatoes are being sold to distillers in Baltimore and Philadelphia at give-away prices, she reported.

Mrs. Gunther concluded with the following statistics from the government report: "The government buys the potatoes from the farmers paying $3.35 a hundred pounds; turns around and sells them for about 15 cents a hundred pounds. The price is to be supported at 60 per cent parity until June when it will be cut to 60 per cent parity."

A memorial basket of flowers honoring Frances E. Willard was placed on the altar of the First Baptist Church, Sunday morning, February 12, by the local W.C.T.U.

Mrs. George H. Shults announced a Diamond Jubilee meeting of the Kingston Women's Christian Temperance Union, Wednesday, March 23, in the First Methodist Church, Albany. At this meeting Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, national president, will give recognition of 50 year women during the morning and in the afternoon an address: "The Time Is Now."

New Paltz W.C.T.U. Meets

Boston Chorale Art Society Will Sing At St. James Church

The Boston Chorale Art Society of Boston University which is coming to St. James Methodist Church Saturday evening, March 19, will be making a return engagement. The concert will be sponsored as it was two years ago by the Sanctuary Choir of the church.

The previous concert is vividly remembered by Kingston people who attended the program. The report from Dr. H. Augustine Smith, director, implies that this year's choir is the best in his almost 40 years of chorale conducting at Boston University.

The singing group in the past decade has traveled more than 25,000 miles giving concerts throughout the east and middle west and Canada. The itinerary of the coming tour will take the group from Boston as far west as Chicago, Ill., and will include concerts in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Detroit, Flint and Kalamazoo as well as Kingston and other points along the route.

The Sanctuary Choir of the church considers the program a civic and community concert. The public is invited to attend without charge.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of " Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

VISITING CHILDREN

The helplessness of this question is very appealing: "Are we expected to suffer in silence when untrained children of our friends climb over our piano bench, handle valuable ornaments, play with the television set, etc., and are not corrected by their parents? Perhaps you can tell us what to do."

Answer: My own method is to keep a certain number of items on a shelf for such children to play with—principally picture books and blocks, but on no account soap bubbles or wax crayons!

Bridal Receiving Line

Dear Mrs. Post: It is the custom here for the parents of the bride and groom to stand up part of the bridal receiving line. Please give us the proper order, if there is any, as it seems to vary.

Answer: Although the parents usually receive at the door and the bride and groom (together or in the room, this is not a fixed rule and those who prefer to may receive in one long line. In this case, the bride's mother would be the first to greet the guests, then the groom's mother, the bride and groom and her attendants. The fathers usually prefer to walk about together rather than stand in the line.

With or Without Children

Dear Mrs. Post: Doesn't it alter the taste when a divorcee, who has no children, has gone back to business and calls herself Miss Jane Former-name?

Answer: In business one may remain "Miss" because it is not necessarily one's personal name. Socially, "Miss" is impossible for a woman who has been married.

Age, or Marriage?

Dear Mrs. Post: Whose name should appear first on invitations being sent by two sisters? The one is married but the other is very much older.

Answer: Although it is customary to put a married name before a single one, if the difference in age is very great, the unmarried sister's name might be put first if she so prefers it.

Are you planning to give a shower for a friend who is having a baby or for a bride-to-be, Mrs. Post's leaflet, E-13, gives many helpful suggestions. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to be in care of this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Coterie Hears of Brandywine

River in Topic Discussion

Coterie met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Byron Chatterton, 78 Maiden Lane. Continuing with the topic on rivers, Mrs. Charles A. Terwilliger read a paper on Brandywine river, located in Pennsylvania and Delaware, and famous for the battle during the Revolutionary War.

She spoke not so much of the river itself but of the historical happenings along its banks. The flour industry in America was started along the river, she reported, and the du Pont factories also were first located along the banks of the Brandywine.

She noted that Quaker settlements were founded. The houses were built with piazzas and porches facing away from the street. People from France also founded settlements along the river.

Mrs. Terwilliger described the battle during the Revolution and as a reason for the American's defeat said that Washington had been misinformed. She also described the literature of the section personified in Bayard Taylor, writer, and the art with Howard Pyle as an outstanding painter.

The next meeting will be March 1 with Miss Elizabeth Van Vranken, 167 Fair street.

Dominick DeAngelo, Newburgh, Weds Theresa Mannese, Milton

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Theresa Mannese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mannese of Milton, to Dominick DeAngelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeAngelo of Newburgh. The double ring ceremony was performed Sunday, February 13, at 5 p. m., in St. James Church, Milton, by the Rev. John Halpin.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a white satin gown with full length veil and headpiece of orange blossoms. She carried white calla lilies centered with gardenias.

Miss Susan Mannese was maid of honor for her sister. She wore an orchid and chartreuse gown with headpiece of gold sequins and orchid veiling with ribbon that tied under the chin. She carried yellow roses and sweet peas with orchid streamers. Miss Gloria Post, cousin of the bride, as flower girl wore a white satin and lace gown with matching headpiece and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Angelo DeAngelo, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The usher was Patsy Pankazi. A reception for approximately 50 guests was held in St. Mary's Hall, Newburgh, where Dom Lafaro and his orchestra played. Following this, the couple left for a motor trip through the south. They will make their home in Milton.

Mr. DeAngelo served overseas in the army and is employed in Newburgh.

K'tanim Nursery School Will Continue as Day Camp During Summer; Name Committees

Plans for continuing the K'tanim Nursery School during the summer in the form of a day camp were made at a special meeting of the mothers recently at the home of Mrs. Murray Fletcher, 40 West Chester street. The age limitation for enrollment will be three and a half to six years.

Mrs. Charles Forst and Mrs. Sam Kerick were appointed co-chairmen. The management of the day camp will follow the same system used at the nursery where mothers of the children assume cooperatively various aspects of administration. A budget was drawn up and committees named.

Mrs. William Zwick and Mrs. Murray Greene will be in charge of investigating and procuring a locale for the camp. The location will include a private beach, suitable playground and indoor shelter. Mrs. Murray Fletcher and Mrs. Harry Gold will hire personnel. Mrs. Charles Forst and Mrs. Leon Miller will have charge of moving heavy equipment such as swings, slides and sand boxes from the nursery school to the day camp and also will purchase any extra supplies and equipment. Milk or juice will be furnished for the children in the afternoon under the supervision of Mrs. Gold.

Mrs. Fletcher announced that a series of field trips for the children of the nursery school, has been started. The first trip was a sight-seeing tour through the Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. Fire Station on Abel street. The next trip will be to Reade's Kings on Theatre to see a matinee performance of Walt Disney's "So Dear to My Heart." Other field trips scheduled are a visit to a farm, a ferry boat ride to Rhinebeck and a visit to Forsyth Park Zoo.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Harry Streifer discussed "Aggressiveness in Children." She emphasized that feelings of anger in children, and resulting acts of aggressiveness are normal in children of all age groups and should not be repressed by parents.

"Feelings of aggression," she said, "are least harmful when they are faced honestly and come out in some forthright form of expression. If these feelings are not allowed natural expression, the hostile feelings might be squelched by the child temporarily, but will come out sooner or later in less desirable ways."

Mrs. Streifer pointed out that as the child grows older, he learns discretion and instead of striking out in anger will talk it out and reason it out.

She suggested two simple rules for parents to follow in dealing with acts of aggression in the young child: "Never condemn the child's feeling, but understand it."

Let the child know you are helpful or destructive action." Following this talk, the mothers discussed specific instances of aggression in their own children and how they dealt with it. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

GRIDDLE CAKES KEEP MEN HAPPY

Griddle cakes and syrup produce masculine breakfast smiles.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Staff Writer

Start the day with a "stack of wheats" with butter and syrup. The man of the house will be happy.

Griddle cakes are versatile. They can be served at many meals. Meat roll-ups, a variation of the basic recipe, use up every last scrap of leftover meat or chicken and make a delicious supper entree. Another variation is the apple pancake dessert, which provides a hearty ending to an otherwise light supper of soup and salad. Corn griddle cakes, now and different, will please all the family no matter what hour of the day they are served.

Corn Griddle Cakes

(Makes 12 to 15 griddle cakes)

One and one-half cups sifted flour, 3/4 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 egg, well beaten, 1 cup milk, 1 cup cooked or canned corn, 2 tablespoons melted shortening.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, pepper and sugar and sift again. Combine egg, milk and corn, add to flour mixture, add shortening, then mix only enough to dampen flour. Bake thoroughly on hot, greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and maple-blended syrup.

Meat Roll-Ups

(6 servings)

Use your favorite pancake recipe. Spread each pancake with about 2 tablespoons of meat mixture, made by mixing together 1/4 cups ground cooked meat of chicken, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 1/2 teaspoon onion juice, and few drops of Worcestershire sauce. Roll carefully. Serve at once with gravy or well-seasoned white sauce to which a bouillon cube has been added.

Apple Pancake Dessert

(8-8 servings)

Use your favorite pancake recipe, making six 7-inch pancakes. (Allow about 1/2 cup batter for each.) Stack in two piles, spreading spiced sweetened apple sauce or apple butter between cakes. Sprinkle top with confectioners' sugar, if desired. Cut in pie-shaped wedges and serve at once with maple-blended syrup.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, griddle cakes, butter or fortified margarine, maple-blended syrup, crisp bacon, coffee, milk.

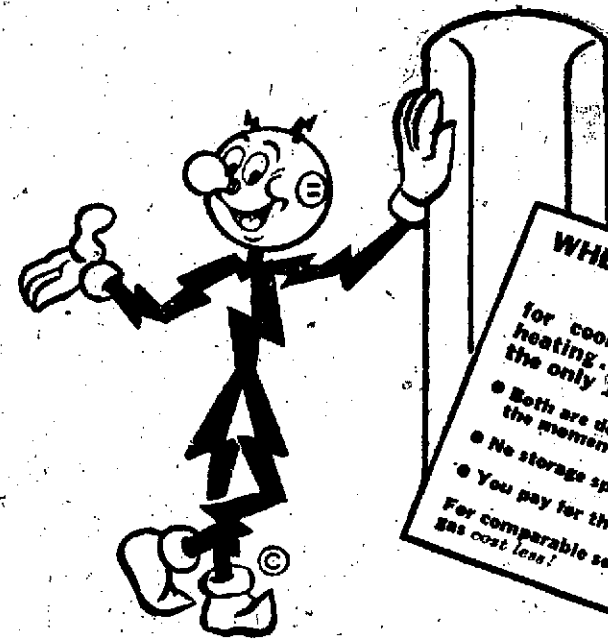

LUNCHEON: Potato soup with croutons, whole wheat crackers, vegetable salad, rye toast, butter or fortified margarine, cheddar cheese, stewed fruit, cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Boiled tongue, spiced tomato sauce, creamed potatoes, buttered Swiss chard, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, celery, apple pancake dessert, syrup, coffee, milk.

Says Reddy,

"Go automatic today! But, be sure the equipment you buy is 'sized-up' to your family needs. Local plumbers and appliance dealers will gladly tell you about the perfect size for your family."

K.H.S. TAKES 15TH FLAG IN 69-52 WIN OVER MIDDIES

Ronnie Scheffel Equals Old Scoring Record of 37 Points

By Irwin J. Thomas

Spearheaded by Ronnie "The Kid" Scheffel who equaled Big Ed Weaver's DUSO League scoring record of 37 points, Kingston High School's amazing basketball team completed its tremendous 1948-1949 league campaign Monday night by copping the second half crown and outright championship of the schoolboy loop with a convincing 69 to 52 victory over Middletown.

Kingston's big victory over Middletown last night was its 53rd in 54 starts. K.H.S. is undefeated in DUSO League play in three years. It was their 32nd straight DUSO victory.

Weaver set his outstanding record of 37 points during the 1946-47 season against Newburgh Free Academy.

As a result of last night's thrilling triumph, which came only after a miserably slow start in the opening period, Kingston's truly great cage squad rolled up its 12th straight DUSO League conquest of the year and gave the local school its 15th league pennant and fourth in a row under the regime of Coach G. Warren Kias.

For Coach Mac Wagner's Middies it was their second and final opportunity this year of halting the grinding Maroon machine. The Kiasmen galloped through an unbeaten first half campaign which was culminated by Kingston's 53-45 win over the Middies on January 21.

Last night the Middies, despite their red-hot win over Port Jervis, failed in the clutch again, but in a more convincing fashion as the Maroons really hammered on after a slow start.

After all the commotion had died down, however, it was "The Kid" who really enjoyed a field day for himself at the expense of the dazed Middies. Scheffel, who has been the repeated meal-ticket for the Kias forces this year, dropped in baskets from all angles last night in tying Ed Weaver's old record of 37 points. From an impartial viewpoint, however, Ronnie had several opportunities of establishing a new mark late in the game but elected to "pass out" to Lafayette "Champ" Holstein on several occasions.

Last night's victory for Kingston was moulted through a terrific display of team play that was evident throughout the titanic battle. Mike Rienzo, the usual high-scoring guard who can roll up the points with the best of them, played the defensive game of his young career. Although Mike only wound up with four points, his backcourt play set up repeated scores for the Maroons.

Another outstanding performance was turned in by "Champ" Holstein. Holstein found the range for 15 points and could have had even a higher total. His complete team play performance had much to do with bringing Kingston to its 12th straight DUSO conquest of the season.

For "The Kid's" outstanding game, a Hollywood scenario writer could not find him justice. He was just plain terrific with a capital T. Scheffel was unstoppable from the opening whistle. He kept Kingston in the ball game in the early minutes and had a big part in laying open the Middletown defense in the final two periods. Ronnie dumped in 10 points in the opening stanza when the Kiasmen trailed 22 to 17. He bounced back with a half dozen more markers in the midway period. After bucketing nine points in the third period, Scheffel really opened up in a blaze of scoring thrusts in the final period when he flipped in an even 12 points. In all, "The Kid" countered 15 times on fields and seven from the charity stripe.

Middies Take Lead Capitalizing on Kingston's weak start in the opening period, plus some sensational breakaways by Hank Klindberg, Middletown's great football star, and Glen Cook, Mac Wagner's crew broke out in front at the four-minute mark in the opening period. The Middies, erasing an early Maroon lead, suddenly came to life and threw a definite scare into the Maroon camp with their fast breaks and scores.

Before the period had ended, however, the Kiasmen looked better but still trailed by seven points, 22 to 15 at the bell. A foul and a field by Scheffel helped along with a beauty of a side set shot by "Champ" Holstein, brought Kingston up by 22-20 before the Middies found themselves. Walt Adams, Klindberg and Dick Brown sent the Middies off lying again with straight shots and at the three-minute mark it was Middletown out in front by 28-22.

Chambers Knocks Score Keefe Chambers, Kingston's lanky center who experienced a rough first period, tied up the ball game at 28-28 after Holstein whipped in two fields and Scheffel found the range on a two-pointer. With about a minute to go in the midway period, Scheffel's conversion of three straight fouls made it 31-28 for Kingston. Bob Laskowitz kept Middletown close with

After Mike Rienzo made it 55-40 at the four minute mark, Coach Kias sent in Joe "Claw" Albany for Mort Gazlay as the Kingston horde continued to pour it on. In the waning minutes, Scheffel had several chances of breaking the scoring record on foul shots but his aim faltered. On other occasions, when it appeared as though he had easy chances for two-pointers, he passed out to other members of the squad.

Sidelineers Ronnie was the big boy last night and everybody knew it, although all of the other Kingston players turned in a commendable job. The Kid's feat of tying Ed Weaver's famous scoring record of 37 points was a job in itself but his all-around play was something else. From an impartial point of view, Ronnie appeared a sure bet to knock off Weaver's record total on several occasions but elected to "feed" the ball to his mates. Enough couldn't be written for Mike Rienzo's stellar play. The veteran guard is definitely a ball player's ball player.

Keefe Chambers' play smoothed out after a rough start. Mort Gazlay's backcourt play was up to par and of course, the other half of the scoring duo, "Champ" Holstein, played another of his specialties. Officiating by Dell and Kaufman seemed mostly improved over recent games. Two bus loads of Kingston fans were at the game plus several passenger vehicles. The crowd started pouring in about 6:30 p. m. and it wasn't too long before the place was packed. From our viewpoint, the crowd was practically made up of Kingston fans. Perhaps the Middletown backers knew what was in the offing.

Seek Bobsled Title Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Three teams—two from the United States and one from Switzerland—shot for the world's four-man bobsled championship today down the hazardous Mt. Van Hoevenberg run that has been the scene of two serious accidents in two weeks. The French were forced out of the four-man competition by a crackup in the two-man title event yesterday that saw Henri Aden and Louis Saint Calbre injured.

Chambers Knocks Score Keefe Chambers, Kingston's lanky center who experienced a rough first period, tied up the ball game at 28-28 after Holstein whipped in two fields and Scheffel found the range on a two-pointer. With about a minute to go in the midway period, Scheffel's conversion of three straight fouls made it 31-28 for Kingston. Bob Laskowitz kept Middletown close with

General Trained For Biggest Task With Small Jobs

Richmond, Va., Feb. 22 (AP)—Patience is preparation!

"Faithful performance of daily small duties prepared George Washington for the largest task that ever fell to the lot of a single American," says Dr. Douglas Southall Freeman, biographer of the first president.

Dr. Freeman, reluctant to grant an interview while his research in the middle period of Washington's life still is incomplete, has found the years just covered, from 1759 to June 1775, among the most informative on Washington's development.

Washington went back to Mount Vernon at the beginning of 1759 to a very much run down plantation which he had to build up. One of his characteristics, Dr. Freeman said, was that whatever duty was laid upon him he discharged fully. During the years of restoring Mount Vernon and making it profitable, Washington found that he had very many difficult services laid on him by neighbors. Every man in trouble came to him for counsel, and a very considerable number came to borrow money. When he could, although he was not always able, Washington let them have it. Being a business man he wanted to be repaid, but he had the greatest difficulty with them.

"At the same time that he was a community benefactor, he had to be diligent as a bill collector," Dr. Freeman said.

One neighbor was perpetually in trouble and Washington wrestled with his problems for five years. When the family finally went to pieces, Washington tried to save the children and particularly to educate one of the sons. A former rector of his parish died and left a trust fund for his widow. Washington being named one of the trustees. The widow married again and Dr. Freeman said the second husband tried to rob her. She was afraid of him and frequently would acquiesce and try to get Washington to give her money to him. Then she would write letters privately to Washington asking him not to do so.

It was as difficult a case as a man could have, Dr. Freeman said, but Washington stuck to it for fully seven years and did his absolute best to make the hard man pay the woman her annuity of 100 pounds.

Dr. Freeman cites these as two typical cases of what Washington had to do in the community. Out of these difficulties, he says, the first president developed a patience and an increase in his dealing with the personalities in his army.

Along with all this Washington assumed the full burden of community service. He was a justice of the peace, a vestryman and later warden of his church. He was a member of the committees of his county and he served in the legislature from 1759 until he resigned to accept the continental command.

"All of this public service sharpened Washington's innate sense of duty," Dr. Freeman said. "The composite of this experience was the development of what was probably his most valued characteristic—sound judgment."

Quaker Test In Made

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—A U. S. District Court jury trying Edgar R. Norton, 20, of Glens Falls on a charge of refusing to register for the peacetime draft, starts hearing testimony today. Dr. Harrop Freeman, Norton's attorney, declined last night that this be the Quakers' first test of the constitutionality of the peacetime Selective Service law. Norton, a senior at Fredonia State Teachers College and a member of the Society of Friends (Quakers) was indicted December 29 at Ulster for failing to register with Draft Board 34 at Glens Falls. It was the first indictment in Upstate New York for violation of the 1948 Selective Service Act.

lular to the figures for Albany, Delaware, Greene, Orange, Otsego, Rockland, Schoharie and Ulster counties, the area which is served by the West Shore and the Catskill Mountain Division of the New York Central where the revised schedule are contemplated. These figures were offered to show the trend of increased passenger car registration and traffic.

Figures compiled by the Office of Defense Transportation for the years 1941-46 were also offered. This report was objected to on the grounds it had nothing to do specifically with West Shore Railroad traffic. The objection was sustained but Stevens was permitted to offer the report of identification.

Stevens indicated that the matter probably would be carried to the higher courts and stated that he desired the exhibit to be in so that the court would have an opportunity to rule on its admissibility.

These reports indicated that back in 1924 branch rail lines were being surpassed by motor travel in regard to passenger service and that on the short hauls 98 per cent of passenger traffic miles was by automobile. The reports indicated a distinct falling off in railroad passenger miles on the short hauls.

The figures also indicated that in 1914 there were 85,600 motor trucks on the highways while in 1930 the figure had risen to 3,480,939. Private passenger cars in 1910 numbered 460,000 in the country while in 1930 that figure had risen to 23,000,000 and that in the decade between 1922 and 1933 passenger traffic by rail declined very noticeably.

Loss of passenger traffic by rail was greatest on the short haul runs, runs up to 100 miles, and motor traffic was taking away business from the short lines or branch lines of the country's rail road systems. The figures showed that passenger traffic on the short lines had "largely or almost completely disappeared" and the report went on to state that the passenger car was responsible for this condition. Bus traffic was also taking its toll.

In the report was a figure from the railroad, covering a short line area in Illinois, which showed that back in 1929 and 1930 rail road passenger traffic included only 22 per cent of the traveling public while subsidiary bus lines carried 16 per cent and private passenger cars carried 62 per cent of the passenger traffic in the area. Various figures were cited showing that branch lines of the railroad had lost up to 85 per cent of its passenger traffic. Figures were offered for 1929 from Burlington statistics to show that the railroad was carrying only one quarter of the passengers on its short line that year as compared to 1921. The decline was placed at 265 per cent.

Transportation engineer statistics, based on the New York Central System was sworn. He has been in the employ of the Central since 1904 in various capacities. He testified as to passenger figures.

Figures for 1947 showed that revenue passengers carried on the Central's system had declined that year over 1946 by 5.40 per cent. Coach passengers declined 13.65 per cent that year. Figures for a ten months period for 1948 over a similar period of 1947 indicated a decrease of 1.2 per cent for commuters in 1948, a decline of 11.16 per cent for coach passengers and a decline of 8.27 per cent for Pullman traffic.

Operating revenue from passenger traffic for the system in 1946 showed a profit of $7,401,716 and in 1947 there was a deficit of $12,741,017.

Net operating income for 1946 was $1,249,765 and for 1947 the net operating revenue showed a deficit of $30,134,386.

Bassett said in 1946 the Central paid out 96 cents for every dollar taken in and in 1947 it expended $1.0753 for every dollar taken in. In 1948 for a ten months period this figure had risen to $1.1622 for every dollar taken in. The net deficit for the available ten months period of 1948 was $25,509,981 or against $11,043,684 for the equal ten months period of 1947.

Bassett referred to the increase in railroad employee salaries since 1946. This was for locomotive engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen. On January 1, 1946 there was an increase of 6 cents per hour. In May 1946 a further increase of 2 1/2 cents an hour and on November 1, 1947 a further increase of 5 1/2 cents per hour. The last increase granted on October 16, 1948 was 10 cents an hour. This was a total of 24 cents an hour increase since January 1, 1946 to date.

Cross examination of Bassett was reserved until later.

Statements on Shipments

Testimony was also offered by Express company employees to indicate income from mushroom shipments on the West Shore Railroad from Coxsack, West Athens, Catskill, Aleson and Lake Katrine, Assistant to the Division Superintendent Chamberlain of Albany was called to testify. He was asked if he had read the testimony of Roy Miller which was taken at the prior hearing relative to shipments of mushrooms on train No. 2. He said he had, and records had been made from the reports of agents at these stations as to mushroom shipments. On cross examination by Peters to ascertain whether the records had been prepared by the express, Chamberlain said they had been prepared by Route Agent Kimball. Objection was made to Chamberlain's testimony and he was withdrawn and Kimball took the stand.

Kimball said he had made the records from the reports of the express agent at the station. The record showed any shipment of mushrooms made to New York, Brooklyn or Long Island. He was asked specifically as to shipments made on train No. 2. He testified the record was for the month of January.

Peters objected to this record as being for too short a period, said a record should be submitted for a longer period and that it was not known from the record if there had been shipments on train No. 2. Mr. Peters said the records themselves were the best evidence and Mr. Kimball said the records were probably available themselves in the express company accounting office. He had made the records from the agent's reports which were sent in monthly to the accounting offices of the company.

Why Only January?

Commissioner Williamson asked why only the month of January had been picked out. He said the witness Miller had testified that No. 2 train carried the majority of mushroom shipments but had also referred to shipments made in warm weather. The commissioner stated that it was the policy of the commission to get records for a longer period than a month.

The records were offered for identification.

Peters stated to the commission that the records covered a period for January when train No. 2 did not appear on the timetable and "people did not know the train was running."

The records showed that the K-V Products Company, of which Miller is an official, had made no shipments on train No. 2 in January.

The witness said shipments could have been made to other destinations since his report showed only shipments made to the New York area.

Objection was renewed by Peters to the records.

Williamson stated that the exhibit was not in the form required by the commission. He pointed out that exhibits should be in duplicate and should cover representative periods. He suggested records of winter and summer shipments covering a longer period than a single month.

The record of shipments of mushrooms from the area indicated, Stevens said, "negligible" shipments by rail.

For the commission, Williamson said a more comprehensive record should be shown to include any shipments of mushrooms by train. Kimball testified that prior to three years ago shipments were considerable but of late shipments had dropped off and over the road shipments by truck were made to such an extent that a year ago the special rate for shipment of mushrooms had been withdrawn.

Considerable testimony was offered as to the hours during which agents were on duty at the station in question and as to whether shipments might not be made north to Albany to be transferred to another train for Westchester or sent to New York by the main line.

Objection to the record of shipments was finally sustained and it was offered only for identification.

Testimony was offered to the effect that the heavy shipment of mushrooms was from October to April and in summer the growers were preparing their beds for the winter season. There were considerable shipments to Boston, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo in addition to New York.

Chamberlain was recalled and testified to a campaign carried out by the express company to instruct the growers on how to ship mushrooms. He said the growers cooperated well and delivered the product to the stations shortly before train time. The company provided protective coverings to keep out the cold in winter and heat in summer and the agents kept the product in the station in winter to prevent freezing until just before train time.

Chamberlain said the express company was not told in advance of the intent to take off trains and the company had not been advised of any intent to discontinue train No. 2 until "a few days before the change." He said the express company had not later advised the shippers that the train was still operating.

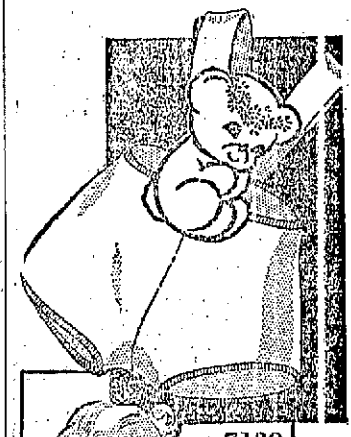

Asked if the 1947 increase in express rates which amounted to about 46 per cent had affected the shipment of mushrooms, Chamberlain said it had not, mushroom shipments had "gone before that."

At this point an adjournment was taken until Wednesday, March 2, at 10:30 o'clock.

heightened by the appearance of a large number of red flares burning along the route of march, and the large number of persons who turned out led President Martin to comment today, "The Excelsior Hose Company will never forget the people of Kingston."

The parade began from Hurley avenue at 7:30 p. m., headed by police escort and the Port Ewen Drum Corps. Apparatus from Kingston, Hurley and the town of Ulster was in the line of march as was the American Legion 40 and 8 locomotive, city officials, fire commissioners from Kingston, Hurley, Port Ewen, Ulster, Foss, volunteer firemen and auxiliary members.

In Service 17 Years

In turning the old truck back to the city, Martin pointed out that it had been in service at the Excelsior firehouse 17 years and that it had done good work in the city and in the town of Ulster and in Hurley when called upon. Also it was being turned back "without a dent."

The old truck had a booster pump valuable in drawing water from cisterns, but could not be used to boost the pressure in hydrants, he said, and for that reason the 1,000-gallon pump was necessary to give adequate protection for city residents in the higher sections where hydrant pressure is sometimes low.

Martin pointed with pride to the fact that the old truck had been used 17 years and was being turned in "without a dent."

In a statement today, Martin said, "As president and member of the officers and members of Excelsior Hose Company, I sincerely thank those who turned out. He listed as due special appreciation the fire commissioners of Hurley and the Hurley Fire Company; fire commissioners of the Town of Ulster fire district and Ulster Hose Company; fire commissioners of Port Ewen and members of that company; the T. Groves and the Legion 40 and 8 Society; Elliot Clark, for the use of his sound system; Clifford Jackson, for the use of the tractor-trailer truck in which the Port Ewen Drum Corps was transported; Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, Fire Commissioners Richard Hickey, Henry Kelly and Frank E. Burr; Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, officials of Kingston, and Supervisor Harold C. Osterhout and Alderman James E. Martin of the Twelfth Ward.

Also, Martin thanked Chief of Police Raymond Van Buren for police assistance at the parade and The Freeman for bringing the news of the parade to the public. The annual meeting of Excelsior Hose Company will be held at the Roseland, Washington avenue, with a banquet at 7:30 o'clock followed by dancing.

Fireman's Death Probed

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Two score detectives and five department officials were seeking a solution today to the death of a fireman whose body was found in the entrance of a Harlem tenement last night. A Negro man and woman picked up in the investigation, were booked early today on charges of vagrancy and held in custody. The victim was Fireman Raymond Sheridan, 46, of 5848 Tyndall avenue, the Bronx, who was attached to Engine Company 52 in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. His body, with a deep cut on the nose and other facial injuries, was found at 9 p. m. at 2369 Eighth avenue. An autopsy was ordered. Sheridan was in civilian clothes. Acting Deputy Chief Inspector Walter Sullivan listed the death as suspicious.

The Foreign Office said the Bulgarian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has announced that two members of the British legation staff can attend.

'Evangelist' Held With Daughter on Counterfeit Charge

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—A 60-year-old self-styled evangelist and his 18-year-old daughter were arraigned yesterday on charges of possessing counterfeit money.

They were identified as Vincent and Rosemarie Lapi.

Officials of the U. S. attorney's office said they are "closing the links" and getting "closer to the higher-ups" of a national counterfeiting ring.

Bail was set at $15,000 for Lapi, arrested Saturday, and at $5,000 for his daughter arrested yesterday. Both denied the charges.

The officials said four bogus $10 bills were found in a raincoat belonging to Miss Lapi after a man who had been in their house at 200 Park avenue Harrison, N. Y., was arrested carrying $10,000 in counterfeit money.

They said the man, one of three arrested Friday, is Lapi's brother-in-law. His name was given as Giacomo Lauriano, 52, the Bronx. The others are Anthony Marino, 44, and Peter Modica, 38, both of Brooklyn.

Miss Lapi said she found the four $10 bills on their front lawn when returning from shopping.

The U. S. attorney's office also said "hundreds of thousands" of lottery tickets were found in Lapi's home, and that a Bronx printing shop was raided today as a result.

Lapi was quoted as saying a man named "Pete" brought the lottery tickets to his house once a week for folding and other preparation. He denied any connection with the alleged counterfeiting ring.

Former Model Wins Personal Property

Newark, N. J., Feb. 22 (AP)—A former model, who fought her own case in court against her father and stepmother, won all the personal property she sought—except an old waffle iron.

A jury of nine men and two women yesterday unanimously awarded Mrs. Arturo Gay a cash settlement of $1,338 and numerous articles of furniture and sporting equipment.

She claimed they had been withheld by her father, retired army Col. Paul J. Horton of Montclair, and her stepmother, Mrs. Helen N. Horton.

Mrs. Gay, 31, blonde, and in her twenties—had filed suit for $5,000 worth of personal property. She said she could not afford to hire a lawyer.

The jury made the cash settlement on items that already had been sold by the father. The waffle iron, more than 15 years old, the jurors conceded, was Horton's.

The final court session was delayed an hour and a half when Mrs. Gay broke down. The doctor, called to attend the handsome young woman who pleaded her own case during five tense court sessions, said she had suffered a temporary paralysis of the tongue caused by emotion.

Pale and apparently distraught, Mrs. Gay had given a halting, scarcely audible rebuttal and a half-hour summation as the case ended.

She sobbed openly when she told the jury "she had loved her father dearly, but he's dead for me now."

"You can't give me back my father, he's gone—but I do ask you to give me back some of the things my mother left me," she pleaded.

When the verdict was announced, Mrs. Gay and her husband, West Point graduate Arturo Gay, son of a Cuban ambassador, embraced. Mrs. Gay told reporters there was too much "heartbreak" in the case for her to feel any elation.

Pity Poor Father

Cambridge, O., Feb. 22 (AP)—Mother and son are doing nicely thank you—but the father, well, only fair. That was the report last night from St. Francis Hospital after Mrs. Wilbur Archer presented her husband, a 34-year-old World War 2 veteran with a six pound, six ounce baby boy. Archer fainted when a nurse showed him the baby. His head struck the floor and he required 17 stitches in his face and chin.

Kuhn Free, Wants $155,900 Received To Regain His U.S. Citizenship Now

Munich, Germany, Feb. 22 (AP)—Fritz Kuhn, former leader of the German-American Bund, was freed today by a German Appellate Court. He said he would try at once to regain his American citizenship, lifted during the war.

A Denaturalization Court had sentenced him to ten years as a major Nazi. The Appeals Court reduced the term to two years and took into consideration the 23 months he already has served in prison camps.

The judgment automatically freed him except for minor formalities such as getting his papers. The court ordered 20 per cent of his property confiscated. Kuhn, however, said he had no holdings in Germany.

Kuhn, grinning as he left the room, said:

"How does it feel to be free? Oh, it feels very good," he said.

While waiting for the court to convene Kuhn had been pessimistic. At that time he had said:

"They give me the limit."

Kuhn was bitter about the Germans.

"When you see them around here," he said, "it flows you right up to here." He held his hand against his neck to indicate his disgust with the Germans.

Kuhn's release came just one day after the tenth anniversary of the German-American Bund's biggest rally in Madison Square Garden. But there was a note in Kuhn's rejoicing. That was when John Roy Carlson, author of the anti-Fascist book, "Under Cover," came into the corridor. Kuhn pointed to Carlson, who had testified against him in the appeal, and shouted:

"Get that Communist out of here, get him out I don't want to talk to a Russian. It is finished, I won't talk any more."

Carlson, an American by birth and an American citizen, grinned broadly at Kuhn and shook his head.

Bill Is Opposed

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The New York State Election Commissioners Association went on record today against a bill that would set up a permanent personal registration system for all the state's voters.

The measure, now before the Senate Judiciary Committee, was introduced by Senator Pliny W. Williamson of Westchester county and Assemblyman Harry A. Reoux of Warren county, both Republicans. Under the bill, a voter's name would be carried over in registration books provided he voted every two years.

Says 100,000 Would Join

Paris, Feb. 22 (AP)—Gary Davis said today that 100,000 people have written him that they want to join his "Citizen of the World" movement. Davis, former bomber pilot, renounced his American citizenship last May to become a citizen of the world. He said that mailing of "Citizen of the World" cards to all those asking them will start in April.

For Notch Road

Catskill, Feb. 22—Greene county has been allotted $155,900 under the second federal aid program, according to G. L. Nickerson, district engineer of the State Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, to help build the Notch Road.

According to Greene county officials, the money is the second allotment of a three-year program of construction of secondary roads in the county which was set up in the summer of 1946.

Previous funds were used for improvements of the Notch Road, and a recommendation is being made that the present sum be applied to complete the south end of the same highway, known as the Phoenix-Stony Clove State Road No. 214, in the town of Hunter.

Both Claude S. Tompkins, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and Supervisor G. Richard Ham of Hunter have contacted the State Department of Public Works and have filed a request that a survey be made of this road to see if enough money has been made available to complete it. If not they will urge that funds be made available for the project.

Man Is Slain

New Orleans, Feb. 22 (AP)—A wealthy Bristol, Va., business man was beaten or strangled to death today by a mysterious assailant in a downtown hotel room. A bell-boy found the body of James Mahoney, about 50, stretched nude across his bed with his head bashed in and a towel knotted tightly around his neck. Police Lieutenant James Blass said Mahoney had planned to leave early today for a vacation in Yucatan, Mexico. He had neither received nor made any calls since he registered Sunday.

Anniversary Observed

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The capital observed the 217th anniversary of George Washington's birth today with parades and wreath-laying ceremonies at the first president's tomb. Central event of the day was the ceremony sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Mount Vernon, where Washington lived and was buried. President Truman sent a wreath to be deposited at the tomb.

departure: Disability insurance, under which employees covered by old age insurance would get short-term sickness benefits.

Doughton introduced the President's legislation. But he told reporters he did this at Mr. Truman's request and that he is not sponsoring the bill.

Like Doughton, some top Republicans—including House G.O.P. Leader Martin and Senator Millikin (R-Colo.)—declined comment on the measure.

But Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), who guided appropriation bills when Republicans controlled Congress, had this to say:

"As far as the Social Security Act goes, if the people want to take themselves double, that's one thing; but I'm not in favor of taxing the people generally to pay any more gratuities to anybody unless it is a direct obligation of the government."

Other members of Congress, talking informally, expressed particular doubt as to the enactment of the home relief program. They foresaw strong objections, too, to increasing taxes on wages and salaries.

The President will send legislation to the Capitol later for a national health insurance program and for expansion of unemployment compensation. There are some estimates that the health program with the government paying doctor bills would mean about $6,000,000,000 in payroll taxes.

Population of Europe more than doubled between 1800 and 1900, increasing from 187,000,000 to 400,000,000.

Late Bulletin

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The Senate today confirmed the appointment of former Republican State Chairman Glen R. Bedenkapp as a member of the State Public Service Commission.

Governor Dewey last night sent the nominations of Bedenkapp and Francis T. Mylott, a Democrat, to the Senate which referred them to its finance committee. The posts each pay $16,500 a year.

Mylott's nomination was not reported back immediately to the Senate by the committee. Chairman Arthur H. Wicks said the committee would act on it next week.

Legislation Approved

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The Senate judiciary committee today approved and presented for legislative action a proposal setting up a point system for veterans' civil service preference.

Introduced by Senator MacNeill Mitchell, Manhattan Republican, the proposed constitutional amendment would revise the present temporary regulation by which veterans are given absolute preference.

Relations Grow Worse

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Feb. 22 (AP)—Relations between Yugoslavia and Albania, strained since Marshal Tito's split with the Cominform, are growing worse. The official Communist newspaper Borba said Albania had begun a policy of "border provocations" last summer—the time of the split with the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau).

Extension Bill Passes

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The Legislature passed today and sent to Governor Dewey a bill extending to 48 hours the period for filing reports of serious automobile accidents. The law now requires that persons in accidents involving death or injury or property damage exceeding $50 must file reports with the State Motor Vehicle Bureau immediately. Final action on the measure extending the time came in the Assembly.

The Senate approved it last night. The bill was introduced by Senator Seymour Halpern, Queens Republican.

Will Train Rescue Teams

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission plans to train teams which would be rushed to any area hit by an atomic bomb, it was disclosed today.

Carroll L. Wilson, commission manager, has told the Senate-House Atomic Committee that groups of about 100 civilians will be trained in the use of radiation detection devices at Oak Ridge, Tenn., Los Alamos, N. M., and Hanford, Wash. Wilson said the armed forces would be expected to cooperate in any rescue work.

Protest Is Made

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Paraders organized by the Knights of Columbus marched up Fifth avenue today in a cold rain to protest "the unspeakable mistreatment of Cardinal Mindszenty."

The parade ended at St. Patrick's Cathedral for the annual K. of C. Memorial Mass. City Councilman Charles E. Keegan, grand marshal, said the demonstration also was designed as a pledge of loyalty to Francis Cardinal Spellman in his fight on communism.

Price Sag Develops

Berlin, Feb. 22 (AP)—A sag in prices, similar to that in the United States, is developing in Germany, the American Military Government reported today. The "small but significant" drop was noted in the semi-monthly report of Gen. Lucius D. Clay for the period ending Feb. 14. Analysts credited the break in prices to an increase in production and a post-Christmas "sales-resistance" on the part of the public.

Regents to Fight For Stand on Floor Senate, Assembly

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The State Board of Regents has carried to the Legislature its fight to keep the state university trustees from taking control of 31 state-aided colleges.

The 15 trustees, appointed by Governor Dewey last summer, are scheduled to take the administrative duties from the Regents April 1.

Companion bills to relegate the trustees to a role of planning board were introduced last night by two Republicans, Senator William R. Condon of York and Assemblyman Elsha T. Barrett of Brightwaters, L. I.

The battle over control of the schools may flare into one of the legislative session's major controversies. Democratic legislative leaders have indicated they will back the Regents. The board also may get independent Republican backing, particularly in the Assembly.

Attempts to amend the 1948 state university law, which provided that the trustees take control of the 31 colleges, was promulgated by the Regents in December when they issued a statement of "major educational needs" for the state.

At that time, the Regents said the state university law had given the trustees "powers and functions beyond those which seem to have been envisaged by the State University Commission."

In that statement, the Regents also called for the creation of a legislative commission on school buildings and long-term capital needs of individual school districts.

A resolution to create an eight-member joint legislative commission to study the school construction program was introduced last night by G.O.P. Assemblyman Wheeler Milroe of Canastota.

Milroe, chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, asked that the Legislature provide $150,000 for study, and direct the commission to report its findings by February 15, 1950.

Bill Is Called Weak

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—One of the sponsors of a newspaper confidence bill described it today at an Assembly Committee hearing as "weak, but better than nothing." Senator Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican, urged the measure's approval in a statement prepared for a public hearing staged by the Assembly Codes Committee.

provided and the balance of the cost of the meal was met by the board from the lunch program receipts. Last year there was a deficit of some $9,000 which was made up from board funds. Not long ago the Common Council criticized the cost of the program.

Members of the Supplies Committee will meet with the cafeteria employees to discuss possible means of cutting down the deficit in the lunch program.

The February payroll of $77,464.36 and vouchers in the sum of $6,012.69 were authorized paid as was the payroll and vouchers for the veterans on the farm program in the sum of $594.32. The P.D.A. school lunch program payroll and vouchers amounting to $8,215.42 for January were audited.

George Dranchak was given a probationary appointment as a teacher of auto-mechanics in the vocational school at a salary of $2,800 per year, effective February 7. Dranchak has had 12 years experience as an auto-mechanic, for years of which were in the Ordnance Department of the U. S. Army.

Attendance of Miss Relyea, Miss Weisman, Miss Stitzer and Miss Polhemus at the Association of Childhood Education conference in New York was approved. Attendance of Miss Roberts at the National Music Association conference in Baltimore in March was also approved.

The attendance of Superintendent Laidlaw at the American Association of School Administrators meeting in Philadelphia on March 27 to 30 was also approved. Laidlaw will be one of the speakers on the program.

Trustee Lechive for the Athletic Committee reported on the annual A.A. banquet held last Saturday night. He reported one of the largest crowds ever to attend this affair. Also at the basketball game between Newburgh and Kingston, he said there was a capacity crowd and more than 200 were turned away. He predicted K.H.S. would bring to Kingston the 1948-49 basketball championship as it had the football, baseball and other trophies.

Trustee Fowler for the Rules Committee reported an agreement had been prepared and submitted by Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, relative to the payment of one per cent of the school taxes collected in 1949, this one per cent payment being made to the city in consideration of the collection of the school taxes by the city treasurer. The agreement was a temporary measure to be applied only this year. Fowler recommended the approval of the agreement. On motion, the president and clerk of the board was authorized to execute the agreement on behalf of the board.

The board voted to loan to the New Paltz State Teachers College two sections of the knock-down bleachers for use on March 25 when a Music Clinic for the counties of the Hudson Valley and Long Island will be held at the college. The bleachers are to be removed under direction of school authorities, returned with 24 hours in good condition. The action was subject to clearance by the athletic director to ascertain whether they would be in use here on that date.

A communication was received from R. Frederick Chisley, acting agent of the insurance company carrying on musical instruments. This was done and the insurance was given the Donnaruma agency. This insurance covers instruments owned by the Board of Education valued at $6,485 and also the private instruments which are used by students in school.

A financial report was submitted by Hubert Hoderath, director of vocational education, stating that there had been taken in as proceeds of sales of shop products the additional sum of $323.70. This makes a total for sales of $927.85.

A report of the P.D.A. school lunch program for the period from September through December was made showing a deficit of $3,827.29 during that period and also an additional deficit of $765.82 in January for a total of $4,593.11. The receipts from cafeteria sales were $26,807.27 and claims for reimbursements $9,770.75 for a total income of $36,578.02. Expenditures are: Food $25,003.80, Labor $12,245.76, and other expenditures $2,136.36 for a total of $44,191.61. Inventory at the beginning of January was $6,755.69 and at the end of January $8,020.48. Total expenditures $36,171.13. Less $4,593.11 for the school year.

Teachers and Census
It was reported that a plan to have school teachers take the 1950 Federal census was being considered. Kingston teachers will be asked if they desire to take part in the plan. The census will be taken during one week in April, which locally could be done during the spring vacation week.

It was also reported that revision of the plans for an addition to the vocational school building was under way. Among the revisions in the use of one of the large rooms in the building for a high school chemical laboratory to replace the present inadequate chemistry lab in the high school building. Architect Betz is now preparing final plans and specifications and these will be completed within a month or two. The job will then be advertised and bids will be in within the ensuing 30 days so that construction may start soon thereafter. It is hoped the new addition may be in shape for use next September.

Health Report
A report of the Health Committee was made by Dr. Holcomb, chairman, which reviewed the work for the present school year. In reporting the work done in dentistry it was revealed that a large number of defects had been found and it was recommended that an additional part time dentist be engaged to assist in this work. The recommendation was adopted and the Health Committee was empowered to secure such an assistant.

The report also disclosed that there were several cases where students should have tonsils removed, but that the family was financially unable to stand the burden and still the family was not eligible for welfare assistance. It was suggested that perhaps the Service Clubs of the city would be able to assist in this work as a part of their services.

The report of Dr. Samuel S. Nussbaum, medical director who with his assistant Dr. John Roberts was highly complimented for the work done, follows:

During the course of the past several months certain problems have arisen with regard to policy.

Dental: 3,932 children proved to have dental defects. Working part time and working well, Dr.

Newman has been able to see only

231 children to date. I am certain that among the rest of these children there are still many who cannot afford private dental care and will not get any care at all. There is need for another part time dentist working in the afternoon.

Education: Following discussions with small groups of male students and with individual members of the teaching staff, and finally, after a round table discussion and symposium held at the M.J.M. School, it is generally agreed that some sex education is needed. However, this is a highly controversial subject and the manner and extent of its presentation should be a matter for your profound deliberation.

A group of girls have volunteered to act as dental aids and are doing an excellent job and gaining good experience for a possible future in dental nursing. If possible, these girls should be given some credit on their health course in recognition of their service and to point up the value of this experience.

Physical Facilities: Inspections of schools are being made—classrooms, lunchrooms, etc. All facilities are very well kept but absolutely inadequate. There is marked need, as you not doubt know, for airy gyms, ample showers, and better medical offices throughout all the schools; these should be provided for in the building program.

Service Organizations: There are many borderline cases involving children who cannot afford private care and who are not on welfare. These are cases best handled by the service organizations. May we suggest: A community chest for welfare of school children—funds to be donated by organizations from their own already existing welfare fund. For instance, among the 231 cases of defective tonsils found, there are quite a few who cannot afford private care, yet cannot be assisted by the Welfare Department. While arrangements have been made for free medical services there are hospital fees which have to be met. The suggested pool can furnish this sum. Can service organizations be approached for such projects?

In Conclusion: About 88 per cent of our students have already been examined and our program is moving right along.

Respectfully submitted,
SAMUEL S. NUSSBAUM,
Medical Supervisor,
Kingston, N. Y., February 4, 1949.

Chinese Are Trapped in a Bank

When the Chinese Nationalist government announced in Shanghai that each Manchurian refugee would be given cash relief of 20,000 gold yuan ($20), a crowd of 5000—including many nonrefugees—gathered the scene. When the distribution was halted, the mob occupied the Central Bank, demanding financial aid. They were locked inside the bank. Some, like those shown here, had to entreat passersby to buy them food. This man is bringing them some biscuits. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Warren Lee.)
